WELCOME!

New parishioners are asked to register by calling or visiting the parish office or by speaking to one of the parish staff.

WHY A CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN SHOULD BE A REGISTERED PARISHIONER

1. The precepts of the Church explained that: we need to belong to a parish (your parish is the Church in the City where you are domiciled) and to contribute to its support. Everyone should do this (Canon 107).
2. To identify yourself with a worshipping community of faith. Salvation comes to us by God in community. Religion is not meant to be individualistic. Membership in a parish community is the norm.
3. To allow the priest of the parish to know you so that Letters of Recommendation can be given when needed. (Sponsorship/certificates)

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham pleads with the Lord, who planned to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah because of the evil and sin in those cities. Abraham asks him if he would spare the city if fifty, forty, thirty, twenty or even only ten innocent people were found there. God says that he would spare the cities even for the sake of only ten.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul explains to the Colossians that through baptism, they are raised to life with Christ because they believed in the power of the God who raised him from the dead. Even though they once lived in sin, their sins have been pardoned through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Jesus' disciples asked him how they should pray. He gave them some phrases similar to those now used in the Lord's prayer. Jesus also reminds the disciples how even men with sins are able to give good things to their children, and explains how much more the heavenly Father wants to give to us.

Monday: 2 Cor 4:7-15; Mt 20:20-28

Tuesday: Jer 14:17-22; Mt 13:36-43

PRAYING ALWAYS

The Gospel presents Jesus as praying. It is in the content of his praying that the disciples ask him to teach them how to pray. And the prayer that he gives is the Lord's Prayer, although Luke's version here is not used in the liturgy (we use Matthew's longer version).

To convince his disciples to pray always, Jesus tells of a man who goes to his friend at midnight, asking for three loaves of bread for an unexpected visitor. The friend at first refuses to be inconvenienced; but eventually gives the loaves not because of their friendship but because of his friend's persistence.

Jesus then urges his disciples to pray always, using three imperatives: Ask, seek, and knock...And he assures God's favorable response. God will not ignore every bit of our prayer, as long as we are persistent.

Prayer is not an exercise of futility, but living our Christian identity. When we pray, we are giving witness to the world that we are Christ's disciples; we are connected with our teacher and master and God. We are not swallowed up by the demands of the world. We are liberated from its false teachings that to be happy, we must earn more money, demands meaningless and Christian discipleship meaningful. It is a constant refusal to bow down to the model idols. It is a constant affirmation of our Christian identity as God's own.

365 Days with the Lord published by the Society of St. Paul)

Registration for Faith Formation (for Grades 1 to 8) has already started. Forms have been mailed to those who already have been enrolled in this program. ### From a Former Abortion Provider

“On October 23rd, I went and did my last abortions on just a few patients. And I knew it would be the last day. And that evening, I said No to money and Yes to God. The next day I went down to church and confessed with my mouth that Jesus was Lord. Then, on the way out of church, I saw this blue brochure for a crisis pregnancy center. I just looked at it and kind of felt that this was what I should be involved with. The next day I called up the center and told them I was a doctor in Atlanta and had done many, many thousands of abortions, and that I came to Christ the day before and now wanted to do everything to save babies instead of take their lives.” – Dr. Joseph Randall.
